

ENERGY POLICY

pladis TR factories; with all its employees including top management; carry out its production activities by making energy improvements, without harming the nature, and by minimizing energy consumption.

Our energy policy to achieve these goals is;

- Maintaining the Energy Management System which is regularly reviewed, evaluated and continuously improved by top management.
- To comply with all legal and other requirements concerning our organization regarding energy,
- To increase awareness of energy and reducing energy consumption through the trainings it provides to all its employees in order to achieve efficiency targets;
- To identify energy reduction opportunities by ensuring the effective use of energy and information resources and by analyzing energy consumption,
- To continuously improve the energy performance by measuring through the goals and targets and reporting the results,
- To provide the necessary human, technology and financial resources to achieve energy goals and objectives; get the support of suppliers and contractors,
- Purchasing environmentally friendly and energy efficient products and services in order to improve energy performance, and adopting a business model that increases our global competitiveness by supporting designs to improve performance,
- To make applications that are suitable for the purpose of the organization supporting its strategic direction, and meet the needs of internal and external customers,
- To support the use of renewable / alternative energy sources,
- To contribute to sustainable development,
- To update and review the energy policy.